

Faculty Club 2019

University Guesthouse, Friday, 12:00-1:30pm

Objectives

- Regular meeting point for professors; getting to know each other and networking
- Opportunity to meet the management of the University; mutual exchange between university boards and faculty members
- Discussion and exchange on the research profile of RWTH Aachen University
- ThinkTank: input from and exchange with external top-class researchers
- Networking opportunities for 'advanced talents'; exploiting the potential of creative, bustling talents for the research profile of the University

Programme

October 11, 2019	Markus Rothermel , RWTH Aachen To watch the brain at work
thursday evening , November 21, 2019	Christa Reicher , RWTH Aachen Knowledge-based urban development - Aachen on the way to tomorrow's city of knowledge
December 6, 2019	Rudolf Aebersold , ETH Zurich Combining Computation and Life Science - How to Make Sense of Big Data (working title)
January 24, 2020	Kai Simons , Max Planck Institute of Molecular Cell Biology and Genetics (MPI-CBG) The „Dresden Model“ to build excellence in research (working title)
March 6, 2020	Elisabeth Clausen , RWTH Aachen Automation and digitization in the mining industry for a secure and sustainable supply of raw materials (working title)
April 17, 2020	Paul Nurse , Francis Crick Institute Convergence in research and science (working title)

Registration

All professors of RWTH Aachen University, the junior professors, selected outstanding young scientists and the retired professors are members of the Faculty Club.

To take part in Faculty Club events, a first general registration is necessary, thereby expressing to the Rector your willingness to attend Faculty Club meetings as regularly as possible. Registered members may then register for individual meetings, either via online form or mail to facultyclub@ers.rwth-aachen.de.

A contribution to expenses for lunch snack and beverages is kindly requested (15 € cash on site).

Links for registration and further information are available at www.rwth-aachen.de/facultyclub